

Student Climate Change Conference

All high school students are invited to attend the Student Climate Change Conference. Teachers of registered students also welcome.

Pre-registration required (only 100 seats available!): <http://www.pds.org/about-princeton-day-school/sustainability/climate-change-conference>

Date: Sunday, April 23

Time: 1:00-5:30 p.m.

Host Location: Stony Brook Millstone Watershed Association, Pennington, NJ

Organized by: Princeton Day School students in partnership with Princeton University Energy and Climate Scholars

Cost: Free

Post-conference: Optional hike on the Watershed's 900 acres

Attend workshops by Princeton University Graduate Students and the Director of the Watershed, which will include:

Climate Change 101: Mythbusting What we know about climate change & how we know it.

Politics & Policy: The current state of climate change politics in the U.S. and the world, and policy options for addressing carbon emissions.

Water: How will the changing climate impact our water resources and what can we do to prepare ourselves?

Technical Solutions for Climate Change: What are the technologies currently available and on the horizon that can help solve the climate problem?

Food & Agriculture: What are the existing and potential future impacts of climate change on food production around the world?

Tour a highly energy and water efficient LEED platinum certified building.

Engage with students from other schools.

Create an action plan for your school and perhaps win a $500 grant for your project.

Great local food — FREE

Pre-registration required:

<http://www.pds.org/about-princeton-day-school/sustainability/climate-change-conference>

